

✎ Essay Writing Workshop

Juniors can get a head start on their College Essays this summer at a College Essay Workshop co-sponsored by the Career Center and Independent College Advisors Lee Oller and Sara Schroeder. Here are the details:

Who: Current Juniors (Class of 2010)
What: College Essay Summer Workshop
Where: NHS - Cafeteria Classroom (location subject to change)
When: Tuesday, August 25, 1:00 to 3:00 pm
Why: There are many advantages to starting your essays this summer, before the busy senior year begins.
Fee: $30 at the door.

Here's what to expect at the workshop:

- You will learn what colleges are looking for in the application essay.
- You will discover great essay topics through a guided brainstorm exercise.
- You will learn several insider tips for strengthening your writing skills, and,
- You will start at least ONE essay during the workshop and receive feedback on your topic choice and introduction.

Here's how to sign up:

- Look for the clipboard in the Career Center and sign up before school ends in June. Be sure to write your contact information (phone & email) legibly, so we can reach you in the summer to confirm your spot in the Workshop!
- Space is limited, so sign up early. If space allows, we will accept sign-ups after school gets out in June. Just call one of us to check on availability:
Mrs. Oller at 930-8752 or Mrs. Schroeder at 934-6775.
