Dear Northgate Community,

It is a pleasure to welcome you to Northgate High School for the 2011-2012 school year. The opening of school is always an exciting time with great promise, dreams and hopes for a stellar year. The promise is yours to make. Your involvement, positive attitude, and hard work can make this an unforgettable school year. To make this happen; get involved! Join a sport, club or academic team. Be part of our award winning performing arts program or our dynamic leadership team. The opportunities for involvement at Northgate are wide and varied; the only barrier to participation is if you chose not to get involved.

Below are important dates and events to begin the school year, all of this information can be found at the Northgate High website, (www.nghighschool.net):
